

Proposal

Description of the Current State and Proposal Motivation

Please provide a description of the current state in your institution/facility/group. What problem can be addressed through the successful funding of this project? Why does this animal welfare issue exist in the first place? Are there specific historical, regulatory, politic factors that play a significant role? How is this animal welfare issue currently being measured / quantified?

Given the described current state which aspects most motivate the proposal?

Methodology

What will actually be done during the course of the project?

If applicable / relevant describe the experimental design, sample sizes).

Comment on the feasibility of the proposal? Is this a low-risk, or high-risk project?

Example Form

Literature Reference

Please provide a single exemplary scientific reference which describes the potential solution you wish to apply in your institution/facility/group.

Expected Benefits / Impact on the 3Rs

What are the expected benefits of the project compared to the state-of-the-art in terms of improvements to animal welfare, innovation, reliability (e.g. reproducibility, robustness), relevance (e.g. accuracy, mechanistic, complexity, species of interest) and/or to the technical or research staff of the group/lab/facility.

Ensure to comment on both the short-term benefits (during the project's lifetime), as well as the long-term project benefits (after the project is complete).

Primary expected outcome

What are the one or two measurable outcomes of the proposal that would define whether your proposal was a success?

Is this a direct measure of animal welfare? A measure of technician/researcher satisfaction? Cost or time reduction?

Example Form

Communication and Dissemination

How do you plan to communicate information about the project to your peers, and the general public (if appropriate)? Do you expect to publish a peer-reviewed article related to this proposal? Will there be an educational workshop / course related to this proposal?
